Farmingville, NY - On April 26, Supervisor Ed Romaine (pictured left) attended the graduation ceremony of the Women's Services Division's "Going Places Network by Walmart." The program, which is funded by a national grant from the Walmart Foundation, is designed to help unemployed and under-employed Dress for Success clients gain professional skills, accelerate their job search and build confidence through eight weekly training sessions, one-on-one career coaching and networking in a supportive environment.

The Going Places Network is facilitated by Maria Frey (pictured third from left), President and Founder of Executive Consultants of New York, an organization that specializes in career development and networking.
